

For Immediate Release

March 16, 2015

Contact

Jack Langer (Chairman Nunes)

Jack.Langer@mail.house.gov

Patrick Boland (Ranking Member Schiff)

Boland@mail.house.gov

House Intelligence Committee to Examine the Growing Cyber Threat and Its Impact on American Business

HPSCI to hold open hearing

Washington, D.C. – Chairman Devin Nunes and Ranking Member Adam Schiff of the House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) announced today that the Committee will hold an open hearing to publicly examine the growing cyber threat and its impact on American business.

The hearing will begin at 9:00 am on Thursday, March 19, 2015, in room HVC-210 of the Capitol Building.

Who: House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI)
What: Hearing on the growing cyber threat and its impact on American business (Open)
When: Thursday, March 19, 2015
9:00 am – 12:00 pm ET
Where: Room HVC-210, Capitol Building

The hearing witnesses include:

- The Honorable Tim Pawlenty, Financial Services Roundtable
- John Latimer, TSYS
- Richard Bejtlich, FireEye
- Andrew Tannenbaum, IBM

TV camera crews wishing to attend this hearing must be credentialed through the House Radio & TV Gallery at (202) 225-5214. Press set up will begin at 7:00 am. All media must be in place by 8:00 am.

###

To subscribe to this e-newsletter, click here. To unsubscribe, click here.